About The Artist

BIOGRAPHY & ARTISTIC VISION

| The Artist

Celiane The Voice is the professional identity of Divine Celiane, a Bay Area-based independent artist, singer, songwriter, performer, and businesswoman. With over twenty years of vocal training, including studies at UC Berkeley, she possesses a powerful, classically trained voice that she has channeled into creating a groundbreaking new genre:

Electronica Hip Opera.

| The Technohuman Persona

At the heart of the brand is the "Technohuman" persona—a time-bending hero representing the fusion of humanity and technology. This meticulously crafted character serves as the primary vehicle for her artistic expression, embodied through elaborate cosplay and narrative-driven performances. The Technohuman's mission: to warn humanity to embrace love for its survival.

| Pioneer of a New Sound

"Electronica Hip Opera" represents a sophisticated fusion of operatic grandeur with hip-hop rhythms, R&B, Soul, dubstep, trance, EDM, and classical strings. Rather than conforming to traditional genres, Celiane engineered a musical environment where her unique voice could thrive.

KEY ATTRIBUTES

- ♦ 20+ years of classical and operatic vocal training
- ♦ Pioneer of "Electronica Hip Opera" genre
- ♦ Character-driven, immersive performances
- ♦ Champion of diversity and representation
- ♦ Motivational speaker and workshop facilitator

"I'm not just making music—I'm building a universe for my audience to explore."

Tech & Interactive Elements

WHERE ART MEETS TECHNOLOGY

The Celiane The Voice brand exists at the cutting edge of performance art and technology, offering unique interactive possibilities for modern audiences.

Character-Driven Experience
